Our mission is to connect people that have met before, and to allow them to be more productive and successful by improving their social-, human-, and professional skills. Our services are designed to help people improve, by enabling you and your contacts to give feedback to each others, exchange opinions and learn to establish trusted relationships, based on common values that you and your contacts believe in.

Our services offer you as well the possibility to express your opinion about your favorite celebrities. Use your freedom of opinion to let them know what you like or not about their public behavior, in a democratic way and contribute to help them raise their popularity.

ID-Trees offers you free coaching articles that are guidelines for better human behavior, based on common sense rules. They are designed to help you improve in life, get rid of your weaknesses and strengthen your social values and skills. If you follow them you assume your whole responsibility and agree that you do it on your own risk. ID-Tree is not responsible for the content of those articles and doesn't guarantee your success if you apply them. They are only an encouraging and motivating roadmap, meant to help and inspire you in life.

Celebrities', stars' and public persons' privacy laws are limited through their public presence and the public image that they assume and share, through their own mediatization or promulgation through the mass media.

Based on this public image, our members have a right of expression and a right to share their own opinions about stars, celebrities and public persons through the ID-Tree „celebrity profile“ mode. If this image is built and consolidated on such persons assumed public presence, mediatization or promulgation through the mass media, law allows people to publicly express their opinions about stars or famous persons, which on our ID-Tree platform we define as „Celebrities“.

While we may edit and make formatting changes to your content (such as translating it, modifying the size, layout or file type or removing metadata, we will not modify the meaning of your expression.

Because you own your content and information and we only have non-exclusive rights to it, you alone choose to make it available to others.

As long as those contacts haven't become members of ID-Tree.com, their profiles are not confirmed, meaning that they are not visible to them or to anyone else. Those evaluations will only serve you as personal notes about those persons. Their names will not show up entirely on your evaluation as long as they haven't confirmed their profiles and trees. If not signed up, they will not receive any note or mail informing them that they have been evaluated.
